at 1830hrs

Cranes and Lifting Operations

a talk by

Michael Moore of Absolute Safety Management Ltd

Michael Moore is Managing Director of Absolute Safety Management Ltd. He is a Site Safety Plus, CPCS and NPORS Instructor/Examiner with 29 various categories of plant on his instructor remit. Michael is a Graduate Member of IOSH and is working towards Chartered status.

Michael was seconded by Laing O'Rourke in 2004 to deliver all of their Appointed Person and Crane Supervisor training and has done so ever since. Since 2007, he has delivered all of the Lifting operations training for Mace. In recent years he has worked with Volker Stevin (Harbour & General)/AMEC on some of the preparation work for the lifting of the Millennium Bridge in Newcastle, as well as working extensively with Mace and Laing O'Rourke on the recent T5 project including training all of the Project Engineers and Construction Managers as Appointed persons. This will be his first visit to Guernsey.

Michael will be utilising his extensive experience to talk about the general safety issues that surround cranes and lifting operations. He also will be covering the duties of the Appointed Crane Person and the issues to be considered in lifting plans.

We hope you can make it
